Expectations for dancers and families

- Regular class attendance should be taken seriously. It's important to continually develop your skills. If you do not keep up with your required classes, you will be put on probation, with the possibility of being removed from company dances.
- In order to perform, you must attend all classes & rehearsals week of performance
- Please remember your fellow company dancers depend on your attendance and commitment. Working as a team allows us all to succeed.
- You must contact your dancer's Director if you are going to miss class or rehearsal.

- After 3 missed rehearsals without notification, you may be pulled from the dance.
- Our Dance family is very important to us. Committing to our Dance Companies means treating each other with respect and kindness. Supporting one another and upholding your commitment throughout the season should be a priority for all dancers. Let's have a great year!

By signing, I acknowledge that I read and agree to have my child attend the above scheduled events to the best of my ability. If my child cannot attend, I WILL contact the studio via email AND my dancer's instructor or director via text message. I am financially responsible for my child; I understand the costs and agree to submit payment when requested.
